11  Writing Your Life Story
Everyone has a story to tell, a unique and fascinating life worth sharing. Memoir is a popular and fast-growing literary genre. But for many people who are not seasoned writers, the problem lies in getting started. In this practical, hands-on two-hour workshop on memoir writing, journalist-teacher-author Paul Grondahl will lead participants through a fun and useful program. The course will include analyzing memoir excerpts, sharing life experiences, writing exercises and critiquing each other’s work. The oft-quoted writing advice to “write what you know” is at the core of memoir writing. This workshop will provide you with tips and techniques you can use to get yourself started on writing your life story, a gift of incalculable value to your children, grandchildren, and future generations of your family.

14 Hospital Patient Rights: Understanding and Surviving New Policies for Admissions, Discharges, and Observation Status and How to Protect Your Rights
Older persons, caregivers and senior service professionals all need to be aware of the recent Medicare policies that may affect their hospital admission status and possibly Medicare coverage of needed follow-up rehabilitation care. New policies are resulting in many hospital patients being routinely placed into observation status rather than being admitted as “inpatients” that could result in Medicare not paying for the hospital stay.

Learn your rights as a hospital patient in New York State and learn how to file an appeal related to quality of care, discharge decisions or patient safety problems. Participants will receive tools to help them properly prepare for a hospital stay and avoid unnecessary hospital re-admissions.

- Presenter: Marcus Harazin, M.S., Coordinator, New York Statewide Senior Action Council Inc., Albany, NY
- Date: July 14, 2016
- Time: 1:30 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.
- Location: Albany Guardian Society, 14 Corporate Woods Blvd., Suite 102, Albany, NY

19 Know the Ten Warning Signs of Alzheimer’s Disease: Early Detection Matters
The warning signs of Alzheimer’s disease are often dismissed as inevitable parts of normal aging. If you or someone you know is experiencing memory loss or behavioral changes, it’s time to learn the facts. Early detection is the key to improving quality of life for anyone affected by memory impairment. Attend this interactive workshop to learn the ten warning signs of Alzheimer’s disease where we separate myth from reality and address commonly-held fears about Alzheimer’s and dementia. Find out how to recognize the signs these diseases in yourself and others.
